Synopsis	The Notre Dame Fighting Irish and the Colorado Buffaloes knew each other well. Just a year before on the same field, the Golden Domers walloped the Buffs 21 - 6. But on January 1, 1991, things would be different in the Orange Bowl. The Colorado Buffaloes, a team of comebacks and controversy, overcame the loss of their top quarterback Darian Hagen to earn its first National Championship with a 10 - 9 victory over Notre Dame. The game was billed as a showdown between Colorado's Eric Bieniemy and Notre Dame speedster Raghib "Rocket" Ismail and the two did not disappoint.
