Synopsis	The Terps Blow by the 'Canes for a 31-point comeback. Experience one of the most unforgettable contests in the history of college football between one of the most storied teams of the era, the Miami Hurricanes led by first year coach Jimmy Johnson, and the Maryland Terrapins. Although Bernie Kosar got the 'Canes up big by halftime, Frank Reich wouldn't let the Terps be denied on this occasion. Completing the biggest comeback in Division 1-A history was only the beginning for Maryland and coach Bobby Ross. See just how the 'Canes dominated the first half and behind a 42-3 run the Terps were able to establish themselves in the annals of college football.
