SYNOPSIS

Nobody thought the #2 Florida Gators could beat the previously undefeated #1 Ohio State Buckeyes – nobody except the Florida Gators. Gators Coach Urban Meyer spoiled his Alma Mater's bid for a 5th school title, and captured Florida's 2nd football crown with a convincing 41-14 victory in the 2007 Tostitos BCS National Championship game.

The game started off with a bang as Ohio State star receiver Ted Ginn, Jr. returned the opening kickoff 93 yards for a touchdown. On their ensuing drive, Florida then answered with a quick strike of their own, capped by Offensive Player of the Game, senior quarterback Chris Leak's TD pass. "My legacy was to get the University of Florida back here," the MVP later said. "It's the greatest feeling to be national champs ... I'm just so proud of how hard we worked over the four years, and we finally got to this point; then we took advantage of this opportunity."

Heisman Trophy winner quarterback Troy Smith and the Buckeye offense sputtered without an injured Ginn, Jr. against the tough Gator defense, which sacked Smith 5 times, caused 2 turnovers, and held Ohio State to 86 yards of offense. The Florida offense, led by the twin quarterback system of Leak and Tim Tebow took over, scoring on 6 of their first 7 possessions en route to a 34-14 Gator lead at halftime.

Relive every hard hitting and exciting moment of the 2007 Tostitos National Championship with the commemorative DVD. The official FOX Sports/BCS National Championship DVD includes the commercial-free game as well as special bonus features and is a great addition to any football fan's collection.
